

COLEMAN A. YOUNG FOUNDATION
2018 Fred Martin DETROIT EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR
AWARD APPLICATION

Investing in the leaders of tomorrow...today

Honoring Detroit's Educators
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

“Those of us who are passing off the scene, like Nelson Mandela, like me, like Martin, we are passing on to you who are coming on the scene, the torch. You should be thrilled with the opportunity that you have to complete the revolution.”

- Detroit Mayor Coleman Alexander Young

The Coleman A. Young Foundation (CAYF) was established in 1982 as a 501 (c) (3) charitable organization. Our mission is to develop leadership among Detroit's youth through college scholarships, mentoring, life skills building, parent outreach and other supports for personal growth and development. The year 2018 marks our 36th year awarding scholarships to Detroit's graduating high school seniors.

The recipient of this year's Fred Martin Detroit Educator of the Year Award (DEYA) will be announced and honored during the month of May. The 2018 scholarship recipients will also be revealed.

Please visit our website at www.cayf.org. You can also find us on Facebook and Twitter.

Acceptance and participation in our scholarship program is the same for everyone without regard to religion, race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability or sexual preference.

OFFICIAL NOMINATION FORMS

The Coleman A. Young Foundation (CAYF) invites you to submit nominations for the Detroit Educator of the Year. Nominees must be from the Detroit community, and must exemplify the leadership characteristics and spirit of late Detroit Mayor Coleman A. Young. 2018 is the eleventh year that this award will be given.

We invite you and/or your organization to nominate individuals to be considered for the Fred Martin Detroit Educator of the Year Award. This person is ideally a teacher or counselor, or an administrator from an elementary, middle or high school in the city of Detroit who brings out the best in youth, goes ‘the extra mile’ and inspires students to achieve their potential. This person helps students overcome obstacles and challenges them to reach their goals.

Nominations must be received at CAYF by
Friday, March 16, 2018
