2023 APPLICATION: COLEMAN A. YOUNG FOUNDATION (CAYF) SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Coleman A. Young Foundation is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt, nonprofit, charitable organization founded in 1982 to develop leadership among Detroit youth through college scholarships, mentoring and other supports for personal growth and development.

Coleman A. Young Foundation (CAYF) Scholars Program

CAYF strives to reach as many students as possible who are confirmed to have leadership potential by teachers, guidance counselors, and community leaders, are committed to Detroit, and who may not be able to attend college without CAYF's assistance. The Scholars Program provides academic mentoring and coaching, and counseling to all its scholars.

Eligibility

Applicants must be residents of Detroit who will graduate from a Detroit high school - public, private or parochial - during the award year. Applicants also must:

- Plan to attend a four-year accredited college or university in Michigan or an Historically Black College or University (HBCU).
- Meet all admission requirements of the college or university.
- Have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or better.
- Demonstrate financial need (proof of annual family income is required). A 2022 W-2 Federal Income Tax form filed with IRS is required to accompany this application and must be signed by a parent or guardian. Application is not accepted without this information.
- Complete a scholarship application and provide the required attachments.
- Proof of residence in Detroit.

The Scholarship Award

CAYF awards scholarships of up to $5,000 annually for a maximum of $20,000 over four or five years to eligible graduating high school seniors. Funds must be used to pay for expenses related to attending college including tuition, fees, room and board, books, and transportation.

Key Notification Dates for Finalists

Scholar semi-finalist notifications will be delivered via e-mail on March 17, 2023. Semi-finalists must participate in an interview process. Interview rounds are scheduled throughout the day on Wednesday, March 22, 2023; and at assigned times on Wednesday, April 5, 2023, and Wednesday, April 12, 2023. All interview dates are mandatory. Conflicts with the interview dates must be made known in writing at the time your application is submitted. Scholarship recipients must participate in the 2023 Annual Awards Experience TBD.

Renewal of Awards

Scholarship awards of up to $5,000 per year are renewable for a maximum of $20,000 over 4 or 5 years. Recipients must continue to 1) demonstrate financial need, 2) maintain satisfactory academic performance, 3) demonstrate their ability to succeed, with proper tutoring, counseling and guidance, and 4) maintain a high level of community commitment and involvement.

CHECKLIST — The CAYF Scholars program application becomes complete and valid only when you have submitted all of the following material in one package (please review this checklist carefully):

The Completed Application Form must be accompanied by the following ATTACHMENTS:

- ___ 1. Statement of need declaration
- ___ 2. Proof of family income (2022 W-2 and 2022 Federal Tax Return; or a statement of welfare)
- ___ 3. Proof of Residency in the city of Detroit.
- ___ 4. Resume
- ___ 5. Essay
- ___ 6. An official transcript of grades and either the ACT or SAT results.
- ___ 7. Three letters of recommendation (see "Letters of Recommendation" rules on page 3).
- ___ 8. A cap & gown photo (see "Cap & Gown Photo" instructions on page 3).

If you are submitting a hard copy of the application, all supporting materials must be submitted together in one package to CAYF, postmarked no later than Friday, March 3, 2023, to:
